

(Guilty—Zechariah 3:1-10)

SMALL GROUP QUESTIONS

- We have an accuser named Satan who highlights our failure and sin. What amazing truth does this vision tell us about God's posture toward us?
- Take some time and connect this vision to Christ and how he has saved us. How does the imagery of the dirty and clean clothes help us understand the gospel?
- Joshua is called to live according to God's covenant with Israel. Take a look at Colossians 3. What should our response be to God's faithfulness?
- Is there anything that particularly stood out to you from the sermon?

FAMILY QUESTIONS

- In this passage we learn that Satan is an accuser. What does this mean? What is he accusing us of?
- How does Jesus save us from all that we have been accused of doing?

SCRIPTURE MEDITATION

For behold, on the stone that I have set before Joshua, on a single stone with seven eyes, I will engrave its inscription, declares the LORD of hosts, and I will remove the iniquity of this land in a single day. In that day, declares the LORD of hosts, every one of you will invite his neighbor to come under his vine and under his fig tree.
