

Horizontal Commands 2 (Exodus 20:17-21)

SMALL GROUP QUESTIONS

- What do the people of Israel learn through the law?
- The 10th commandment helps us to appropriately respond to the circumstances in our lives. What is God's will for us within the context of what we have or what we'd like to have?
- What does it mean to covet?
- What does it mean to be content?
- How does a desire for a good thing become a desire for a bad thing?
- What does your desire reveal what you believe about God?
- How do your desires reveal what you believe about others in your life?
- What are some areas of your life that you have struggled to be content with? How have you experienced victory in those areas?
- How does a community that is content with what they have differ from a community that covets what they do not have?
- What are some examples from the life of Jesus that showed contentment even in difficult circumstances?

EXODUS

REDEEMED. RESCUED. RESTORED.

FAMILY QUESTIONS

- Why do we so badly want something someone else has?
- Throughout scripture God is described as a good Father. Does a good Father always give their children everything they ask for when they ask? How does a good Father respond to the desire of His children?

SCRIPTURE MEMORY

I will not leave you as orphans; I will come to you. Yet a little while and the world will see me no more, but you will see me. Because I live, you also will live. In that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him."

John 14:18-21(ESV)
