

(The Heart of an Ambassador— 2 Corinthians 6:1-13)

SMALL GROUP QUESTIONS

- What does it mean to receive the grace of God in vain? How should we receive the grace of God in our lives?
- What obstacles prevent people from trusting in God? What obstacles come from believers or the church? How can we eliminate (or minimize) these obstacles?
- What does it mean to commend ourselves in every way? Are there any areas of your life where you are not representing Christ well? Are there any examples of a believer who is representing Christ well?
- Why is it important that our heart and affections are open to embracing the role of being an ambassador? What happens if our hearts are not in it?
- How do we receive teaching, correcting, or instruction from church leaders or Christian mentors? Why is receptivity and humility so essential for Christian ambassadorship?
- Is there anything that particularly stood out to you from the sermon?

FAMILY QUESTIONS

- How do we show people our faith in God in good times? Bad times? Stressful times? Busy times? Family time? Time with friends? Time at school?
- How would you describe your relationship with God to an unbeliever? Is there someone in your life who needs to hear more about Jesus?

SCRIPTURE MEDITATION

Behold, now is the favorable time; behold, now is the day of salvation. We put no obstacle in anyone's way, so that no fault may be found with our ministry, but as servants of God we commend ourselves in every way.
