

HOPE FOR LIVING (1 PETER 1:13)

SMALL GROUP QUESTIONS

- One of the main ideas of this verse is to set our hope on grace. What does “grace” mean in this passage and in what sense is Peter using it here? How might it be different from, say, the apostle Paul using “grace” in Ephesians 2:8?
- In what sense do we “prepare our minds for action” and “be sober minded” in this life? How do these two ideas provide “hope for the weary” (our sermon series title)?
- Since 1 Peter 1:3-12 is one long thought, why do you think Peter concludes v. 13 from all that came before? Discuss this in your group.
- What does hopeful living look like?

FOR THE WEARY

FAMILY QUESTIONS

- What does being “sober-minded” mean? How do we prepare our minds for action?
- How do we set our hope fully on something? (In this case we’re to set our hope fully on the grace that will be revealed), but what does that actually mean in our daily lives?
- What kind of grace will be brought to us when Christ is fully revealed? What does that mean?
