

HOPEFUL LIVING = BLOOD-BOUGHT LIVING
(1 PETER 1:17-19)

SMALL GROUP QUESTIONS

- How does Peter’s encouragement last week for us to “be holy in all your conduct” relate to this week’s sermon on being ransomed by the blood of Jesus?
- Why do you think Peter describes God in v. 17 as one “who judges impartially according to each one’s deeds”? What is Peter getting at here?
- Discuss why the concept of being ransomed by Jesus, the perfect Lamb of God, is such an important part of the gospel and our testimony as believers.
- Sermon Question: What does hopeful living look like?
