

No Other gods: No Human gods (Exodus 11:1-12:14)

SMALL GROUP QUESTIONS

- How does remembering what God has done in the past strengthen us for today?
- What is something that you remember that has changed the way you live now? Why does it have that effect?
- Are there days in your calendar where you regularly pause to focus on something that is important? What are they and how has that discipline affected your life?
- How does gathering on the first day of the week with other believers help you in your walk with Jesus? How does it help those you gather with?
- If we choose not to remember the past, and what God has done, what are we at risk of?
- What are ways that we can help one another to faithfully remember what God has done?

EXODUS

REDEEMED. RESCUED. RESTORED.

FAMILY QUESTIONS

- How do you know something is important enough that it needs to be remembered?
- What is something in your life that you regularly think back to or focus on, which reminds you of God's faithfulness?

SCRIPTURE MEMORY

Then Moses said to the people,
"Remember this day in which you came out from Egypt, out of the house of slavery, for by a strong hand the Lord brought you out from this place.
No leavened bread shall be eaten."

Exodus 13:3 (ESV)
