SMALL GROUP QUESTIONS

- How do the truths of Scripture unite us in our mission to share the gospel?
- What truths are currently being debated among churches/believers? How can we distinguish between what is a “die for” truth and what is something we can agree to disagree on?
- What kinds of personal agendas seep into church life? How can we ensure we are committing to the real gospel and our mission as a church body?
- Why is there an application to remember the poor in this passage? How can we consider the poor/marginalized as we follow Christ?
- Is there anything in the sermon that particularly stood out to you?

FAMILY QUESTIONS

SCRIPTURE MEDITATION

...and when James and Cephas and John, who seemed to be pillars, perceived the grace that was given to me, they gave the right hand of fellowship to Barnabas and me, that we should go to the Gentiles and they to the circumcised. Only, they asked us to remember the poor, the very thing I was eager to do.
