

(Jesus Sets Us Free—2 Corinthians 3:11-18)

SMALL GROUP QUESTIONS

- Why is the Old Covenant better than the New Covenant?
- What redemptive story does the entire Bible share? Where are we in the story?
- What is the freedom that Paul speaks of when he says, "Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom"?
- How does the Spirit work in our lives according to this passage?
- What practical ways can we participate in the Spirit's work to transform our lives? How can we have accountability in our pursuit of transformation?
- Is there anything that particularly stood out to you from the sermon?

FAMILY QUESTIONS

- What does it mean to be enslaved to sin? What does it mean to be free in Christ?
- Take some time to talk about how being like Christ is truly living in freedom. Share some specific examples.

SCRIPTURE MEDITATION

Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. And we all, with unveiled face, beholding the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another. For this comes from the Lord who is the Spirit.
