

(His Name Shall Be Called...Savior—Luke 2:8-21)

SMALL GROUP QUESTIONS

- How can you tell someone about the love of God using the Christmas story?
- What does it mean for God to be both loving and just? How does Jesus show both love and justice as our Savior?
- Jesus' love toward us is an example for us to follow. How well do you think you have shown Christ's love to those around you this Christmas season?
- Why do you think God gave us the story of the shepherds and angels in the Christmas story? What can we learn from their response to the coming Messiah?
- Is there anything in the sermon that particularly stood out to you?

SCRIPTURE MEDITATION

And the angel said to them, "Fear not, for behold, I bring you good news of great joy that will be for all the people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. And this will be a sign for you: you will find a baby wrapped in swaddling cloths and lying in a manger." And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace among those with whom he is pleased!"
