

(His Name Shall Be Called...Prince of Peace—Luke 2:21-35)

SMALL GROUP QUESTIONS

- What are the things that bring the most anxiety into your life right now? Sometimes the anxiety we face can be hard to put into words. If so, when do you find yourself most anxious?
- Simeon's whole life was wrapped in waiting and anticipation. How did Jesus' arrival bring peace into his life? How can Jesus bring peace to our own anxieties?
- Peace does not mean the absence of suffering. What does it look like to be at peace amid suffering?
- How can you help those around you who are struggling with anxiety?
- Is there anything in the sermon that particularly stood out to you?

WEEKLY PRAYER

- Our Men & Women in Uniform—Air Force
- Dave & Sue Rousseau—TEAM, South Africa
- Rod Voland—Elder
- Keith Doyle—Senior Pastor
- Preschool classes and families
- Living Vine Community Church—Neenah
- Those who do not yet have a personal relationship with the Lord Jesus (Col 4:2-4)

FAMILY QUESTIONS

- What kinds of things do we worry about? Why do we worry?
- How does Jesus give us peace in times of worry?

SCRIPTURE MEDITATION

And he came in the Spirit into the temple, and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him according to the custom of the Law, he took him up in his arms and blessed God and said, "Lord, now you are letting your servant depart in peace, according to your word; for my eyes have seen your salvation that you have prepared in the presence of all peoples, a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and for glory to your people Israel."

Luke 2:27-32 ESV
