

(A Guest in God's House— Psalm 15:1-5)

SMALL GROUP QUESTIONS

- Think about the qualities of the worthy person in Psalm 15. What are some examples of how people today consistently fail or fall short in these areas?
- After considering the way (or ways) in which we fail to live a worthy life, what are some examples of how Christ did so perfectly?
- How should Christ's perfection, in the face of our failure, give us assurance and peace?
- How does Christ's perfection and the empowerment through his Spirit give us another opportunity to live according to these worthy standards?
- How does this make us more aware of our tendency to sin?
- How can we prepare to combat the selfish motivations of our heart?
- Is there anything that particularly stood out to you from the sermon?

FAMILY QUESTIONS

- What separates people from God? How did this separation happen?
- When we feel that separation from God is due to our own sinfulness what might we tend to tell ourselves in those moments?
- How can the perfect life of Jesus comfort us in our failures? How can the perfect power of Jesus help us think, desire, act, and speak better in these areas where we fall short?

SCRIPTURE MEDITATION

Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful. And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, .
