

SMALL GROUP QUESTIONS

- How does a life lived by faith differ from a life lived without?
- What can your response to circumstances in life tell you about your posture towards God?
- How can you trust God with unwanted change?
- How can you trust God with unexpected loss?
- What is the relationship between your circumstances and God's faithfulness?
- What are some examples of difficult circumstances you have walked through in your own life? Did God's promises affect your perspective at all? How?
- What are some choices you have made because you understand the promises of God? How have these choices affected your life?
- What are some helpful skills to develop in order to live a life of faith in anticipation of the fulfillment of the promises of God?

EXODUS

REDEEMED. RESCUED. RESTORED.

FAMILY QUESTIONS

- Is it hard to give up something good now for something better later? Why or why not?
- What is it like when you get something you have been wanting and waiting a very long time for? How can that feeling help you look with anticipation towards future fulfillment of God's promises?

WEEKLY PRAYER

- Our Men & Women in Uniform
- Servant Care International, Fox Valley, WI
- Dave Zerrien, Elder
- Steven Nichols, Executive Pastor
- Legacy (60+) Ministry
- Grace Baptist, Appleton
- Those who do not yet have a personal relationship with the Lord Jesus (Col 4:2-4)

SCRIPTURE MEMORY

Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. For by it the people of old received their commendation. By faith we understand that the universe was created by the word of God, so that what is seen was not made out of things that are visible.

Hebrews 11:1-3 (ESV)