

(The Resources for God's Work—Zechariah 4:1-14)

SMALL GROUP QUESTIONS

- Last week we were reminded of the imputed righteousness we have from Christ as pictured in the vision of Joshua the high priest. Even after considering our position in Christ, what ways might we still feel inadequate for the task we have been given?
- In what ways have you felt doing the work of God seemed impossible?
- In what ways has the work of God seemed endless in your context?
- In what ways has your work for God felt insignificant?
- What are the wrong kinds of might and power we tend to trust in to see the "work of God" get done?
- As we do the work of God, who should we ultimately lean on and trust in to accomplish the work?

SCRIPTURE MEDITATION

Then he said to me, "This is the word of the Lord to Zerubbabel: Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, says the Lord of hosts. Who are you, O great mountain? Before Zerubbabel you shall become a plain. And he shall bring forward the top stone amid shouts of 'Grace, grace to it!'
